

IN FINANCIAL WORLD

AGGRESSIVE BUYING IN UNION PACIFIC

London Rumor That Canadian Pacific Will Declare Extra Dividend.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The stock market opened somewhat confused. Amalgamated Copper started in at lower and Pennsylvania and Northern Pacific 1/2 lower. United States Steel common, Chesapeake and Ohio, and Colorado Fuel and Iron, among others, were unchanged. St. Paul opened 1/2 higher and Anaconda 1/2 higher, but the last mentioned quickly declined 1/2 per cent, making a net loss of 1/2 per cent. Atchafalaya and Southern Pacific gained 1/2 per cent each.

Although the stock market was called professional because of the absence of a large number of outside customers and the scant attendance on the floor, the tone of trading in the leading issues was decidedly aggressive. Buying in Union Pacific and Atchafalaya, Union Pacific made a new high record. Atchafalaya crossed 107 on moderate buying. London was at a moderate level, but more than 5,000 shares. It was current gossip on the other side that Canadian Pacific will declare an extra dividend from the proceeds of its sales.

Government bonds unchanged; railroad and other bonds quiet.

The market closed strong in tone, but prices were a shade off on account of profit-taking.

FINANCIAL GOSSIP

The New York Cotton Exchange, in an estimate of this season's cotton crop, places the yield at 11,225,000 bales. A New Orleans correspondent places this year's commercial crop of the staple at 11,400,000 bales, making the statement that, although the year terminated with good prospects, fair prices, and a large trade in manufactured goods, the price of cotton in the speculative side of the staple was radically curtailed.

About 1,200 men are said to be on their way to San Francisco to break the strike on the United Railroads, which has been on in the Golden Gate City for several weeks.

A New York report states that $2,500,000 in gold will be withdrawn from the Bank of England for New York banks.

The National City Bank has just issued its September circular, which contains a suggestion as to how the money market can be relieved in case of stringency. The recent deterioration of public funds among depository banks, it says, has made scarcely any appreciable inroad upon Treasury cash. Of the $8,000,000 now in the vaults, should the money situation at any time become such as to warrant its use, from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000 could readily be spared for return to circulation by any of the methods available for that purpose.

Considerable criticism of the Pennsylvania State banking law with regard to bank examinations has been heard in financial circles since the failure of the Real Estate Trust Company, of Philadelphia. It is, therefore, not unlikely that the Pennsylvania State Bankers' convention in that city next month, the question will be taken up and radical changes in the present law advocated.

Call money in New York rose to the high mark of 9 per cent shortly after the opening of the market yesterday. Then the eager demand for the money, which had been at 10 per cent, and at 1:30 o'clock it reached 12 per cent. Ten per cent money has not been so scarce in August before since the first Bryan campaign in 1896, when it reached 15 per cent.

A statistician predicts that by 1910 the population of New York city will have reached 12,042,912 persons, thereby taking the title of the first city of the world.

MINTS' AUGUST OUTPUT

IS 13,820,000 COINS

Value Reached $9,369,100, of Which $3,380,000 Is in Gold Pieces.

The monthly statement of the Mint Bureau of the coinage executed at the mints of the United States during August shows a total of 13,820,000 pieces, with a value of $9,369,100. Of this 6,020,000 pieces were eagles and double eagles; value, $3,380,000 and 5,170,000 pieces of silver, amounting to $5,989,100. There were 8,010,000 1-cent pieces struck off, besides 200,000 five- and ten-cent pieces for Mexico and 30,000 silver pesos for the Philippine Islands, for which work no charge except the cost of labor is made.

PIG IRON MARKET CAUTIOUSLY ACTIVE

The Iron Trade Review says:

The excitement characterizing the pig iron situation of the past fortnight has subsided to a considerable extent, and the market has resolved itself into one of strong, but cautious and conservative, activity. Buying continues exceedingly brisk for delivery during the first half of 1907, at about $15 for Southern No. 2, foreign; $18 for Northern No. 2, $17 1/2 to $18 for Bessemer, and $18 for basic. Despite their assertions that no spot iron remained, producers have made a number of sales during the week, in most cases at extremely high prices, though a lot of 10,000 tons of Bessemer for last quarter delivery went at the same figure as is asked for next year.

The scrap market is strong by reason of heavy buying by dealers, who are confident of higher prices in the fall, though consumers as yet are not in the market to any great extent.

MEAT THIRTY YEARS OLD RELISHED BY GUESTS

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Sept. 1.—Buffalo meat, guaranteed to have been killed thirty years ago, was the place de resistance of a dinner enjoyed here by R. E. Easton, of Anthony, Iowa; A. E. Anderson, of Little Sioux, Iowa; and Jesse James, of the Sioux City police force.

While in the Bad Lands they were the guests of G. R. Patterson, a pioneer, famous through South Dakota, who had lived on his present ranch for forty years, and a source of their trip he gave them a six-pound piece of buffalo meat. Thirty years ago he killed a number of buffaloes on his ranch, for the meat and hides. It hung in trees where the climate cured it perfectly.

TO GATHER NEW IDEAS FOR WASHINGTON BRIDGE

Orders have been issued by the Commissioners for the engineer of bridges to proceed to Philadelphia and New York city and such intermediate points as may be necessary, for the purpose of inspecting railings and lamps used on bridges. The new ideas gained by the engineer will be put into practice on the Connecticut avenue bridge now under construction.

HIPPLE SCANDAL BROADENS DAILY

attentions Mr. Hipple was paying to Miss Wright.

Paid Well for Secret.

One night last winter, it is stated a cabman named Brennan was driving Hipple from the depot to the school when the horse fell and was injured so badly that it had to be shot. Brennan was bemoaning his loss when Hipple, it is asserted, gave him $100 with which to buy another horse, saying: "But do not tell anyone where you were driving me."

Miss Wright makes no secret of Mr. Hipple's friendship for her. When her school was incorporated, Miss Wright made president and Miss Wright secretary-treasurer and principal.

In discussing the death of Mr. Hipple, Miss Wright said that she had been one of her dearest friends, and that it was through him that she had been enabled to make her start.

She Wore Exquisite Gowns.
